A Short Session of Police Court.
In Face Matters Did Everywhere in the City.

Candidates are Plentiful And So Are the Voters—Things Are Rounding Up For the Struggle, Tuesday.

MacKinnon, colored, the barber who was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing jewelry, trunks, coats, etc., from G. R. Chinn, the South Third street barber, was tried in Judge Sanders' court this morning and held to answer in the sum of $100. The charge is petty larceny.

The branch of the movement against Jesse Ellis and Joe Smith of the county, who engaged in a fight on October 24, was continued until Monday.

This has been a dull week in police circles. The candidates in a quiet and unostentatious manner have been out hounding in the town and country, and everybody has seemed too busy to disturb the peace. There have been but one or two arrests during the entire week, and these were for trivial offenses.

The Illinois Central railroad track on First street has been laid about to Washington street, and work is progressing rapidly.

Gilbert Burgoyne, colored, scrubber on the steamer Tennessee, went before Justice Winchester this morning and attempted to get a warrant against Annie Ford, colored, who is now in Louisville.

He claims that the woman has been doing his washing for the past two years, and that he has been hounding with her. When he left on a trip last week she sold his clothes, he alleges, closed out her household goods and went to Louisville, taking with her $20 of his money and a fine gold watch.

As the facts did not warrant a charge, it being more in the nature of a breach of trust, no warrant was issued.

Last night Ernest, infant son of Mr. Joe Roark, of South Third street, left home and could not be found for over an hour. The family soon missed him and had a number of neighbors out looking for him.

Constable Charles Worthman was passing along Fifth street near Washington when he found the boy, who began to cry. He told him where he lived, and he could not tell where he lived, and the officer carried him around for some time before he finally, by accident, met the searching party and turned the wandering boy over to friends.

May Fern, Allen & Roswell's trotter, secured fourth money in the $1500 trot yesterday afternoon at Louisville. The track was heavy, and the best time was 2:11.

Jasper Taylor, a negro man, was necklashed last evening at 6 o'clock by Deputy Constable Ed Neale, at Mayfield, the ball entering Taylor's neck and probably inflicting a fatal wound. The pistol was a thirty-eight Smith & Wesson, and Neale was playing with it when it was discharged. Neale is the youngest son of Hon. B. A. Neale, a leading attorney of this city.

Contractor F. W. Rottger returned at noon from Edinville, to spend Sunday. The penitentiary improvements are progressing nicely.

The unveiling ceremonies of the Women of the World tomorrow should not be forgotten. They will no doubt be well attended.

Constable Anderson Miller, of Massac, was in the city today and reported that the colored man in jail charged with stealing Mr. T. L. Marshall's cow is no doubt the right one. The prisoner will have his trial before Judge Sanders Monday.

Mr. A. C. Houston may take charge of the Paducah Gaslight Company on Nov. 1st, but as yet the date is unsettled. He expected to take charge on that day, but has heard nothing from the directors relative to formally turning it over to him.

Work will begin on the sewerage again Monday, with a full force of laborers, after a suspension of nearly two weeks to put in the fish tanks and to clear the dirt from the streets.

Messrs Will and E. A. Grigsby, Floyd Harris and Robt. Boone leave tomorrow for Youngstown, Ohio, where the Messrs. Grigsby have accepted the state agency of the Home Forum. They are four of Paducah's best young men, and carry with them to their new home the best wishes of many friends.

The wires and telegraph instruments were placed in the Union Depot ticket office this morning, and are in good working order.

Wm. Jordan, of Calvert City, who has been ill in the railroad hospital for the past eight months, was discharged today and returned home to see his family and resume work.

The quarantine at Atoka, Tenn., was today modified. Freight trains are allowed to stop over and take on and put off freight, and passenger trains are allowed to stop over and exchange mail.

Gates, Tennessee, today raised the quarantine for trains No. 1 and 2.

Tramway J. J. Flynn went up on his division this morning.

Engineer J. K. Dunn and wife and sister-in-law, Miss Lewis, left at noon for Jackson, Tenn., to reside. Mr. Dunn will go into the grocery business there.

Special Agent J. T. Gorbey, of the Illinois Central, came in at noon from Louisville.

Lecture by a Lady at City Hall. A most interesting and valuable address on "Equal Suffrage" will be given by Mrs. Emma Smith DeVoe at the city hall Monday evening. The lady antagonizes no party or creed, but puts her plea for the ballot for woman in a direct and urgent manner. To say she is a lady, womanly, spirited, spiritual and wise is to say what all who know her can see. Her work is most effective, and after hearing her it will puzzle people to find any objection to offer to equal suffrage. Mrs. DeVoe's splendid record has given her a national reputation upon the platform. Mrs. DeVoe will speak at Oak Grove Sunday afternoon, before the Women of the World, and again Sunday evening at the First Christian church. Our good citizens will be charmed with these addresses, and we urge all to hear her.

The Sex seems it almost superfluous to state that the above cut represents the familiar features of John J. Dotson, the Republican nominee for judge of McCracken county. He has been well and favorably known to many of our people for over a quarter of a century.

He first came to Paducah in Oct. 1871 in his seventeenth year, a large boy full of energy and self-reliance. He was then a traveling salesman, and his city and his people impressed him so favorably that he decided to make his headquarters here. In 1881 he was married and accepted a profitable position in a Cincinnati importing house where he remained six years, paying a visit every summer to Paducah, his adopted home, and to the girl of his choice. On Oct. 1st, 1887, Mr. Dotson was married to one of our most worthy young ladies, and soon returned to our city for permanent residence. He embarked in the mercantile business and through meeting with serious reverses he has retained a strong moral credit, which has enabled him to conduct a good business on a limited capital. Everybody seems to consider the name of John J. Dotson a synonym of honor and integrity.

Mr. Dotson is a native of "Erie's Green Isle" and is justly proud of his race and birthplace. His love for his motherland is sustained only by his fidelity and devotion to the land of his adoption. Though pronounced in his opinions he is at once sincere and liberal. In fact a good, thorough American citizen who understands and duly appreciates our rights and institutions for which the Celtic race has contributed so much blood and treasure to establish.

Mr. Dotson is a business man and did not seek office, but being unanimously nominated by the Republican convention in June and urged by many influential Democrats to make the race, he finally consented. If the people who oppose the "third era" idea and his numerous friends interest themselves as they should, John J. Dotson will be our next judge. That he will be a fearless and faithful officer to one doubts, for Dotson believes in doing right, though the heavens fall.

OFF FOR MAYFIELD.

Senator Lindsay And General Fuchner Left at Noon.

They Were Accompanied By Three Prominent Sound Money Men of Paducah.

Senator Lindsay and Gen. S. B. Fuchner left at noon for Mayfield, where they will speak this afternoon. They were accompanied by a committee from Paducah composed of Hon. Henry Burnett, I. M. Quigley and E. L. Reeves.

The appellate court holds that it can not advance a case on the docket on both sides are agreed thereto, and for that reason refuses to advance the mandamus case of the Lexington union against certain outlaws of registration. This ends all hope of a decision in the case in time to be effective.

HIS LIFE FOR HIS CAUSE.

The Last Day of the Great Leader's Eventful Life—A Busy Night of Speeches.

Was Waging a Most Vigorous and Fearless Campaign For the Mayoralty of Greater New York.

New York, Oct. 30.—Henry George, author of "Progress and Poverty," and candidate of the party styling itself the Thomas Jefferson Democracy for mayor of New York, died at 4:45 o'clock yesterday morning at the Union Square Hotel of cerebral apoplexy.

In his great Cooper Union speech accepting the nomination for mayor less than a month ago, he said:

"I'll make this race if it costs me my life. This is a call to duty, and as a good citizen I have no right to disregard it on account of mere personal considerations."

Today the efforts of the workers have suddenly been changed to sighs, for, true to his word, Henry George died as he wished to die—in harness fighting for the cause toward the close of the greatest municipal political contest the world has ever seen.

The end was peaceful and he died without pain. The man of mighty brain and undiminished courage was physically frail, and the strain of an exciting campaign requiring speech-making at points many miles apart, and a long and arduous journey to the end, and only a few hours before the death messenger came, had Henry George had addressed enthusiastic audiences in three of the towns of the borough of Queens and a still larger assemblage in an uptown hall here.

He spoke at Whitehall at 8 o'clock and made speeches at College Point and Flushing before returning to New York to speak at the Central opera house. Mrs. George went with him. All the halls in which he spoke were filled, and at College Point and Flushing crowds were turned away. At Whitehall he addressed a large audience.

Not long after reaching his hotel he collapsed. Mrs. George awaited him in room 22 of the hotel. It was about 9:30 o'clock when Mrs. George was awakened. She found Mr. George sitting in an arm chair.

"I am not feeling quite comfortable," said Mr. George to his wife. Mrs. George at once grew anxious as to her husband's condition. Mr. George gradually grew fainter. All efforts to revive him failed. Without a sign of recognition to those around him, he passed peacefully away at 4:45 o'clock.

Says That He Will Also Sue the Paducah Evening News—Other Late Telegraphic News Of Interest.

Morganfield, Ky., Oct. 30.—Jo A. Parker, Populist nominee for appellate clerk, has filed suit here against the Louisville Dispatch and the Bowling Green Times for libel. He sues for $30,000 each. Parker says that he will also sue the Paducah Evening News.

DIED AT MILAN.

Mrs. Sarah Pinkston Passed Away This Morning.

Mrs. Sarah Pinkston, aged 51, died today at her home in Milan, Tenn., of a brief illness. She was the only sister of Mr. M. L. Brazelton, of North Smith street, and was well known in Paducah, where she visited during the past summer. Miss Ada Brazelton left last night for Milan, but at her accounts had not reached there, and the supposition was she was detained some where by quarantine.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Terrible Fate of Little Jeanette Englert.

Her Dress Caught Fire From a Stove—Funeral Today.

Little Jeanette Englert, the 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Englert, of the St. John's neighborhood, died last night as a result of burns received a day or two ago.

The child was standing near the stove when her dress caught fire, and she ran to her mother's assistance. The flames were extinguished as quickly as possible, but she was terribly burned, and lingered in agony until death relieved her.

The remains were buried today in the Catholic cemetery at St. John's.

May as Well be Correct

Perhaps you don't care to buy an expensive cloak. More people don't than do. It is none of our business whether you pay $5.00 or $25.00. We don't mean to meddle with your choice; we merely suggest that no matter how little you pay, you may as well have the correct thing, stylish, well-made and worth the money; and you can get it here surer than anywhere else. Cloaks from last year at half price.

Miss John Tully and Mr. J. W. Little to be Married.

Will Be Wedded Next Tuesday Night at the Home of the Bride.

Miss John Tully and Mr. John W. Little will be married at the handsome home of Judge J. C. Tully, on Jefferson street, on next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. The ceremony will be witnessed by a large number of relatives and friends.

Miss Tully is one of the popular young ladies of the city, and Mr. Little is the well known shoe manufacturer, a young man highly esteemed by all who know him. He came to Paducah only a few years ago from Dresden, Tenn., and has since won many friends. His bride-to-be has lived here all her life, and is a beautiful and talented girl.

The couple will leave at once for an eastern bridal tour.

"THE BROWNIES."

Palmer Cox Among the Big Features of the Magnificent Production.

The sale of seats for C. B. Jefferson, Knox & Lechner's famous production, "Palmer Cox's Brownies," opened this morning at Van Catta's. The attraction, which is one of the biggest in the country, will be seen Monday night, and it is positively guaranteed that the performance will be exact in every detail with those in New York Chicago and other large cities in which the wonderful spectacle has opened theaters to the doors. Its scenic effects are described as marvellous. There are twelve scenes in "The Brownies," among which are a storm and shipwreck at sea, an earthquake, a volcano, and the destruction of a palace. In the storm scene the Brownies are all shown huddled on a raft in mid-ocean; the raft goes to pieces, and the Brownies are left struggling in the water. A huge sea bear swoops down and, seizing a Brownie by his trouser seat, bears him up in the air. Among the scenes are realistic earthquake and volcano, and the instant destruction of a magnificent palace. The flying ballet that is danced in mid-air is one of the great features. In CONFIDENCE IS NOT CONCEIT.

We are confident that we have a stock of reliable, useful merchandise. We are equally confident that it will be sold right. We know that it will be sold right. If you've a need that this store can supply, you can bank upon this fact: It will be supplied fairly and honestly. We're not doing business for a week or a month, it's a life time matter with us, and your patronage is valuable. If we protect your buying interest, we can reasonably count upon your continued patronage. Doesn't all this strike you as being common sense and good business policy. Now for goods and prices.

DRESS GOODS HARVEST.

Much might be said about them and it would all be interesting news to hundreds of dress good buyers. The stock is full of dress goods at the following close prices: 11 1/2c, 18c, 20c, 25c, 35c, 39c, 48c, 65c, 75c, 85c and 98c a yard. All honestly priced and gratifying to any of our salespeople to show you. The different priced ones you'd like to see with trimmings to match and the things and the other articles needed for building an attractive dress.

JACKETS, CAPES, CHILDREN'S GARMENTS.

No woman or child in this section need go without a warm winter garment in the face of such values as we are offering. Inspect the stock in our cloak room; prices range from $1 up to $25 a garment.

MONEY SAVING LOTS OF MILLINERY.

These demand your early attention for they are limited in quantity, and first comers secure the bargains.

Ten dozen leather trimmed cow boy walking hats, same as are being sold all over town at $1.25, will go on sale Monday at 49c.

Nine dozen felt sailors, 2 band velvet around crown, velvet bound edges, not shoddy, but good felt at 50 cents.

Six dozen good felt hats, all colors, at 55 cents.

CAN YOU BEAT THIS.

Misses union suits for 25c, iron wearing school shoes for $1 and $1.25 a pair, heavy wrought iron bicycle hose for school wear at 15c a pair, heavy Canton flannels for 7 1/2c and 8 1/2c a yard, ladies $3.50 black shirts for $2.50.
